

KILLING OFF MEXICAN BANDITS

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 4.—More of the Mexican bandits operating around San Benito have been killed by American forces during the last twenty-four hours, according to reports reaching here today, but another band has appeared in the western part of Cameron county, killing an American and attacking ranch houses.

Additional American troops are proceeding to the border today. Four companies of the Nineteenth Infantry are on their way to Del Rio and six companies have gone to Fort Sam Houston where they will be available for an emergency call.

All of the Fourth Infantry is expected to reach Harlingen Monday and the Sixth Cavalry will soon be on the border, in accordance with orders transmitted from Washington.

Martial law practically prevails throughout Cameron county. Mexicans who have taken no part in the bandit operations are feeling in the fear that the American forces searching for the bandits will begin a campaign to exterminate all Mexicans. Several women and children found wandering about on the verge of starvation have been cared for by the soldiers and soldiers and assured that there is no danger for them or their law-abiding kin.

The Mexican raiders have caused heavy damage by destroying irrigation systems at various points. Armed guards are now on duty at irrigation and power plants with instruction to shoot at sight every suspicious character.

DEFIANT TALK BEING DISCOUNTED

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Despite the defiant declarations in Paris and London that no concessions are to be made to American demands that interference with trade between neutrals shall stop, administration officials were extremely confident today that announcement of material concessions by the allies will not long be delayed. It is because positive information to that effect has been received by Secretary Lansing that the British note of protest still is held up.

Immediately upon it becoming known abroad that Germany had determined on concessions to restore good feeling with the United States, the British and French foreign offices got into touch. Their plans which it is admitted at the British embassy here include just how the present regulations are to be changed so that German-purchased goods shall be let through to the United States are now nearing completion. An official announcement is expected from London within 72 hours.

According to the British embassy, the question of concessions on goods going from this country to Germany and Austria or adjoining countries has not been concluded. That will be left, it is understood to direct diplomatic negotiations. But both England and France are desirous, it is explained, of reducing the friction resulting from the protests of American importers that they are being ruined while millions of dollars worth of goods already full for sale are held in warehouses in Rotterdam. The state department has made it very plain that the pressure from the importers is becoming intolerable and Secretary Lansing has informally assured Sir Cecil Spring-Rice that England is laying the groundwork for reprisals by maintaining her "dog-in-the-manger" attitude.

It is carefully explained in official circles, however, that no more concessions dealing entirely with American owned goods will satisfy this government. It will accept them as a step forward, but will insist absolutely upon the allies obeying the letter of the acknowledged international law. The protest note is expected to be absolutely ironclad in its exposition of the position of the United States. And most of the legal points cited are declared already to have been approved by the highest legal authorities.

So far as the German situation is concerned, officials say they do not look for any additional action until some time next week.

HIGH FALLS MAN STILL MISSING

Nothing Further Heard From Supervisor Hasbrouck Since Last Tuesday—Town Board Meets With Counsel For Bondsman.

Supervisor Philip Hasbrouck of the town of Marbletown, who left his home at High Falls last Saturday morning, has not returned and his family has not received any further word from him since Tuesday, when he was in the western part of the state and apparently on his way home.

After reaching Kingston last Saturday from High Falls, Supervisor Hasbrouck wrote a letter to his wife stating that he had been called to Albany. Inquiry at the various departments by telephone on Monday failed to disclose that he had been there. On Wednesday, a letter was received from him from the western part of the state, where he evidently had gone from Albany, stating that he would return within a day or two. Since then his family has heard nothing from him and the alarm they felt early in the week is felt again by them.

Supervisor Hasbrouck's continued absence has given rise to disquieting rumors regarding his business affairs, and his early return home is hoped to dispel these rumors. For a number of years Mr. Hasbrouck has conducted a large flour, feed and coal business at High Falls, where he has spent most of his life, and it is possible that the general business depression has been felt by him in his business with consequent inability to meet pressing business obligations at once. The existence of such a condition might have led him to make a business trip for the purpose of meeting creditors or for the purpose of making an effort to raise the money necessary to meet his existing obligations. In such an event it is not likely that he would keep in constant communication with High Falls but would wait until his return home to explain matters fully.

There are various town matters which will need attention soon, and in his absence an informal meeting of some of the members of the town board of the town of Marbletown was held on Friday to discuss the matter. Besides the town board Friday's meeting was attended by Ex-Mayor William D. Brinley, who is counsel for William B. Quick, William Krum and Thomas Snyder, who are the sureties on Supervisor Hasbrouck's official bond.

PUBLIC INVITED TO FLAG PRESENTATION

The exercises which will mark the presentation of a new flag to the high school will be open to the public. This announcement was made this morning by Andrew J. Cook, chairman of the committee on arrangements, because a number of people have asked him if the public were invited. Mr. Cook asks The Freeman to make this announcement:

The exercises will be marked by a patriotic address by a former chaplain of the United States navy, the Rev. John P. Childwick, D. D., who was chaplain of the Maine when she was blown up in Havana harbor. Dr. Childwick is an able speaker and is a fit speaker for a meeting of this kind, because of his former association with the navy. He is a very interesting and forceful talker.

The exercises will begin at 10:30 o'clock. Muller's Band will render the music for the occasion.

Child's Clothing Needed.
Mrs. Gillespie of the Sunshine Society has asked that The Freeman present the following appeal to its always generous readers. A little six-months old baby is in need of clothing and any gift of such clothing would be indeed a God-send in the family where this little child has been found. NO ACTION TAKEN ON VOTING MACHINES

The voting machine proposition came up before the common council on Friday night when Crawford J. Klotz of this city, representing one of the companies manufacturing the same, was heard by the aldermen.

No definite action was taken on the use of the machine, although it was understood that the company would give the free use of six machines to the city at election time. Those present at the meeting were President Connelly and Aldermen Smith, McKittick, Schlip, Leverich, Mitchell, Kitchner and Martin.

Bills and claims against the city were read and referred to the committee on auditing accounts. A number of bills were reported as audited included the pay rolls.

Street Superintendent Van Keuren reported the purchases made by his department during the month. Referred to the committee on auditing accounts.

The following resolutions were then introduced:

By Alderman Martin that the committee on elections meet on Tuesday evening to designate polling places and places of registration. Carried.

By Alderman Schlip, that the street superintendent repair Second avenue from the railroad tracks to Moore street. Referred to street superintendent.

By Alderman McCullough, that New street be topdressed and rolled. Referred to the street committee.

By Alderman McCullough, that Montrose avenue be topdressed and rolled. Referred to street committee.

By Alderman Kitchner, that holes on Ravine street be repaired and filled. Referred to street superintendent.

By Alderman McCullough, that Pierpont street from Adams street to Hudson street be topdressed and rolled. Referred to street committee.

By Alderman Schlip, that the barb wire fence on Highland avenue be removed as it is in dangerous condition. Referred to chief to notify property owner to remove within five days.

By Alderman Schlip, that corporation counsel and city engineer prepare an ordinance prohibiting the further erection of barb wire fences on highways and providing for the removal of such as now exist. Carried.

By Alderman McKittick, that a drain avenue be graded from Union street to Cornell street. Referred to street committee.

By Alderman Kitchner, that the street superintendent repair the stairs leading from Ridge street to Spruce street. Referred to the street superintendent with power.

By Alderman Kitchner, that the street superintendent take up dirt and rubbish on Abel street. Referred to street superintendent.

By Alderman Mitchell, that as the catch basins on Chambers street are inadequate that street superintendent erect three catch basins between Mary's street and Newkirk avenue to be placed about 150 feet apart. Referred to street committee.

By Alderman Mitchell, that as the sewer on Pierpont street, between Chambers and Hasbrouck avenue is too small that the city engineer and street superintendent examine conditions and report by ordinance or remedying conditions there. Referred.

By Alderman Martin, that as band concerts are proving popular in this city that there be included in the next budget the sum of $500 to defray the expenses of concerts to be held in the upper, central and lower portions of the city. Referred to mayor.

By Alderman Martin, that the street superintendent fill holes on Green street. Referred.

By Alderman Leverich, that the street superintendent repair crosswalk at Gill and Union streets. Referred.

By Alderman Martin, that an incandescent light be placed at Washington avenue and Joy's Lane. Referred to ways and means committee.

By Alderman Leverich, that the street superintendent repair culvert on North street between Union street and Delaware avenue. Referred to street superintendent.

By Alderman Martin, that the street superintendent raise crown of Green street at Maiden Lane. Referred to street superintendent.

By Alderman Leverich, that street superintendent repair culvert on Washington street. Referred to street superintendent.

Former Alderman Anthony H. Lawatsch was in the council chamber and the privileges of the floor were extended to him by President Connelly.

By Alderman Schlip, that an incandescent light be placed on Third avenue near McCullough residence. Referred to ways and means committee.

Crawford J. Klotz was then heard on the subject of voting machines but no action was taken by the council.

An adjournment was then taken.

DILLON FAILS TO MEET GRANGERS

The September meeting of the Ulster County Pomona Grange was held in the Grange Hall at Milton on Friday and although this is the height of the busy season among fruitgrowers, was well attended. Many who could not well afford to spend the time came out in the afternoon, at which time it had been announced that Commissioner John J. Dillon, of the State Commission of Foods and Markets, would deliver an address explaining the work of his department. While a vast amount of publicity has been given the work of this commission and its plans to handle the apple crop, there are many points on which there is a lack of precise information and apple growers had counted on receiving enlightenment at this time. Although Mr. Dillon had reiterated a promise to either be present or send a competent substitute, neither Mr. Dillon nor the substitute appeared, although every train stopping at Milton was met by a committee of Grangers.

In this disappointing situation C. E. Davis of Flatbush, lecturer of the Pomona Grange, offered the best substitute possible by calling on Manager Hook of the Ulster County Farm Bureau, and I. C. Barnes of New Paltz, county deputy of the State Grange, for speeches. Mr. Hook defined clearly what was and what was not the work of the farm bureau manager, and Mr. Barnes spoke of the wonderful work being done by the Grangers in Sullivan county.

Reports from Ulster county granges showed steady growth and a most encouraging interest all over the county.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

Hector Follette died on Tuesday at his home in New Paltz after a long illness. About a week ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis which caused his death. He was traveling salesman for a grocery house. He leaves his widow, Mary, the Rev. John Follette, of Rochester, and two daughters. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Frances M. Mitchell died on Thursday afternoon at her late home, 32 Linden street, Schenectady, after having been in poor health since May. She was a well known music teacher in Kingston for a number of years. The survivors are one daughter, Ruth Ann Mitchell, Schenectady, one son, Howard Atkin of Arkville. Interment will be in Wilkes Cemetery. A burial service will be held at the grave. Those wishing to view the remains can do so at the grave.

MANY ATTRACTIONS ON LABOR DAY

Labor Day will be appropriately celebrated in Kingston on Monday and residents will not find it necessary to leave the city in order to seek recreation. In the morning at 10:30 o'clock will occur the flag presentation to the new high school by the Knights of Columbus and a fine program has been arranged for the occasion. The address will be delivered by the Rev. John P. Childwick, D. D., chaplain of the Maine when it was blown up at Havana, and the Colonial Band will render a fine musical program.

In the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock will occur the dedication of the new high school building. The services will be opened by the Rev. J. L. Leeper, who will offer the invocation which will be followed by an address by William C. DeWitt, president of the board of education, who will preside. The speakers of the afternoon will be Judge G. D. B. Hasbrouck and John H. Finley, commissioner of the state education department. Muller's orchestra will render an appropriate musical program.

At 3:30 that afternoon the big parade of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America will take place. The parade will form at the Kingston Academy campus and march down Broadway to the top of the Broadway hill. It is expected that there will be a large number in line.

The theaters will also have special programs that day and a large number will undoubtedly gather at Kingston Point Park, it being the last day when the park is officially opened for the season.

For the baseball fans there will be a fast game at the Athletic Field when the Red Monograms will have as their opponents the Grangers of Albany. The game will be called at 4 o'clock.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Kenneth Herdman of Spencer's Business School has secured a permanent office position with the Universal Road Machinery Company.

The Local Friends' Aid Society will hold their regular meeting Tuesday Sept. 7. As considerable business is to be attended to, all the members should be present.

The Oriental Pavilion will be the scene of a merry gathering this evening when the excursionists from Saugerties and Tivoli will with the Kingston folks in doing the light fantastic to the strains of McLean's orchestra. There will also be dancing at the Oriental Pavilion on Monday from 12:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m. and from 8 to 12 p. m.

DIPLOMATS HOPE FOR PEACE PARLEY

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Although convinced that President Wilson cannot make any move for peace at the present moment that will promise results, diplomatic and official circles here are far from discouraged over the outlook. They insist that with the Catholic Church throughout the world aligned for mediation and an armistice to discuss terms the outlook for action by mid-winter is very good.

It is admitted that the seeming British uncompromising attitude is the great stumbling block. But they declare that this easily is offset by the similar attitude of Germany, as voiced by the German press, declaring that Germany's enemies must pay her war bills. Officials say that it will be possible to play one side against the other in this connection with the hope for real concessions.

It is admitted in diplomatic circles here that when England desires peace, peace will come. Russia is crushed and will not be a decisive factor in the war for a long time to come. France is now at the top of her resources in men and money. England, however, holds the purse strings of the allies and whenever she finds the economic pressure becoming too great it is declared here, she will be ready to consider a proposal leading toward peace. And while officials differ as to when that time will come, the majority believe that it must be reached not later than the first of next year.

The pope in his communication to the president, is understood to have placed special emphasis on the fact that if the United States becomes insistent in its demands that the war end, its suggestion must be heeded.

Cardinal Gibbons cited several reasons for this belief including the one that America now holds the purse strings of the world. He also suggested to the president that it would be very easy for the American diplomatic representatives at the warring capitals to "feel out" the nations as to their maximum peace terms and then for them to be compared, with the hope that a real method of compromise could be found.

It again was stated "with authority" today at the state department that no definite suggestion of a peace movement, other than the one brought by Cardinal Gibbons, had yet reached this country, thus disposing of the report that Austria had made unofficial overtures.

STANDARD OIL GIVES SHORTER DAY

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Sept. 4.—Employees of the Hayonne and Jersey City plants of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey found posted on the bulletin boards this morning that the company would give its 25,000 workers at these plants an 8-hour day, beginning September 13, without change of wage scale.

The employees formerly worked ten hours a day, which was later reduced to 50 hours a week in the adjustment of July strikes.

The announcement of the company was voluntary, it was announced.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Sept. 4.—Trading at the opening and during the first 15 minutes was comparatively small in volume and price changes were without importance. Some issues started with gains ranging from 1/4 to 1/2, while others showed about the same amount of loss, and in the foreign transactions prices came back close to yesterday's final figures. Anaconda opened 1/2 higher at 71 1/2 and then lost this gain. United States Steel Common sold all through the first fifteen minutes at 74 1/2 against 74 1/4 at the close yesterday. Reading was unchanged at 149 1/4 and Union Pacific was 1/4 lower at 129. Rock Island was freely supplied at the start, yielding 1/4 to 21 1/2, followed by a rally to 22 1/2 and Pressed Steel Car, after opening 1/4 down to 62, rose to 63 1/2. Colorado Fuel was exceptionally active and strong, advancing 1 1/2 to 47, and a gain of 1/4 was made in American Car and Foundry, which sold at 68 1/2.

Railroad issues closed strong; other shares irregular; government bonds unchanged; other bonds steady.

SUBMARINES BUILT FOR THE BRITISH

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Sept. 4.—According to a story published here today ten submarines were built by an American firm, crossed the Atlantic under their own steam and became a unit of the British navy. Five now being stationed off Heligoland and five operating at the Dardanelles.

American achievement, so the story goes, accomplished the trans-Atlantic submarine while the rest of the world was dreaming of the possibility of such a craft being developed. The story is attributed to a man said to be familiar with every phase of the enterprise from the time the contract was let until the under-sea boats were on their way to the North Sea and the Dardanelles.

The work was done by the Bethlehem Steel Company on a contract obtained in England by Charles M. Schwab. The parts were made in this country and assembled at Montreal, because of the ruling of the secretary of state that submarines for the warring powers could not be built in the United States.

So quiet was the work done that the German spies had no inkling of it, and in five months after the contract was secured, the submarines were in the water off Canada, in charge of crews sent over from England for the purpose.

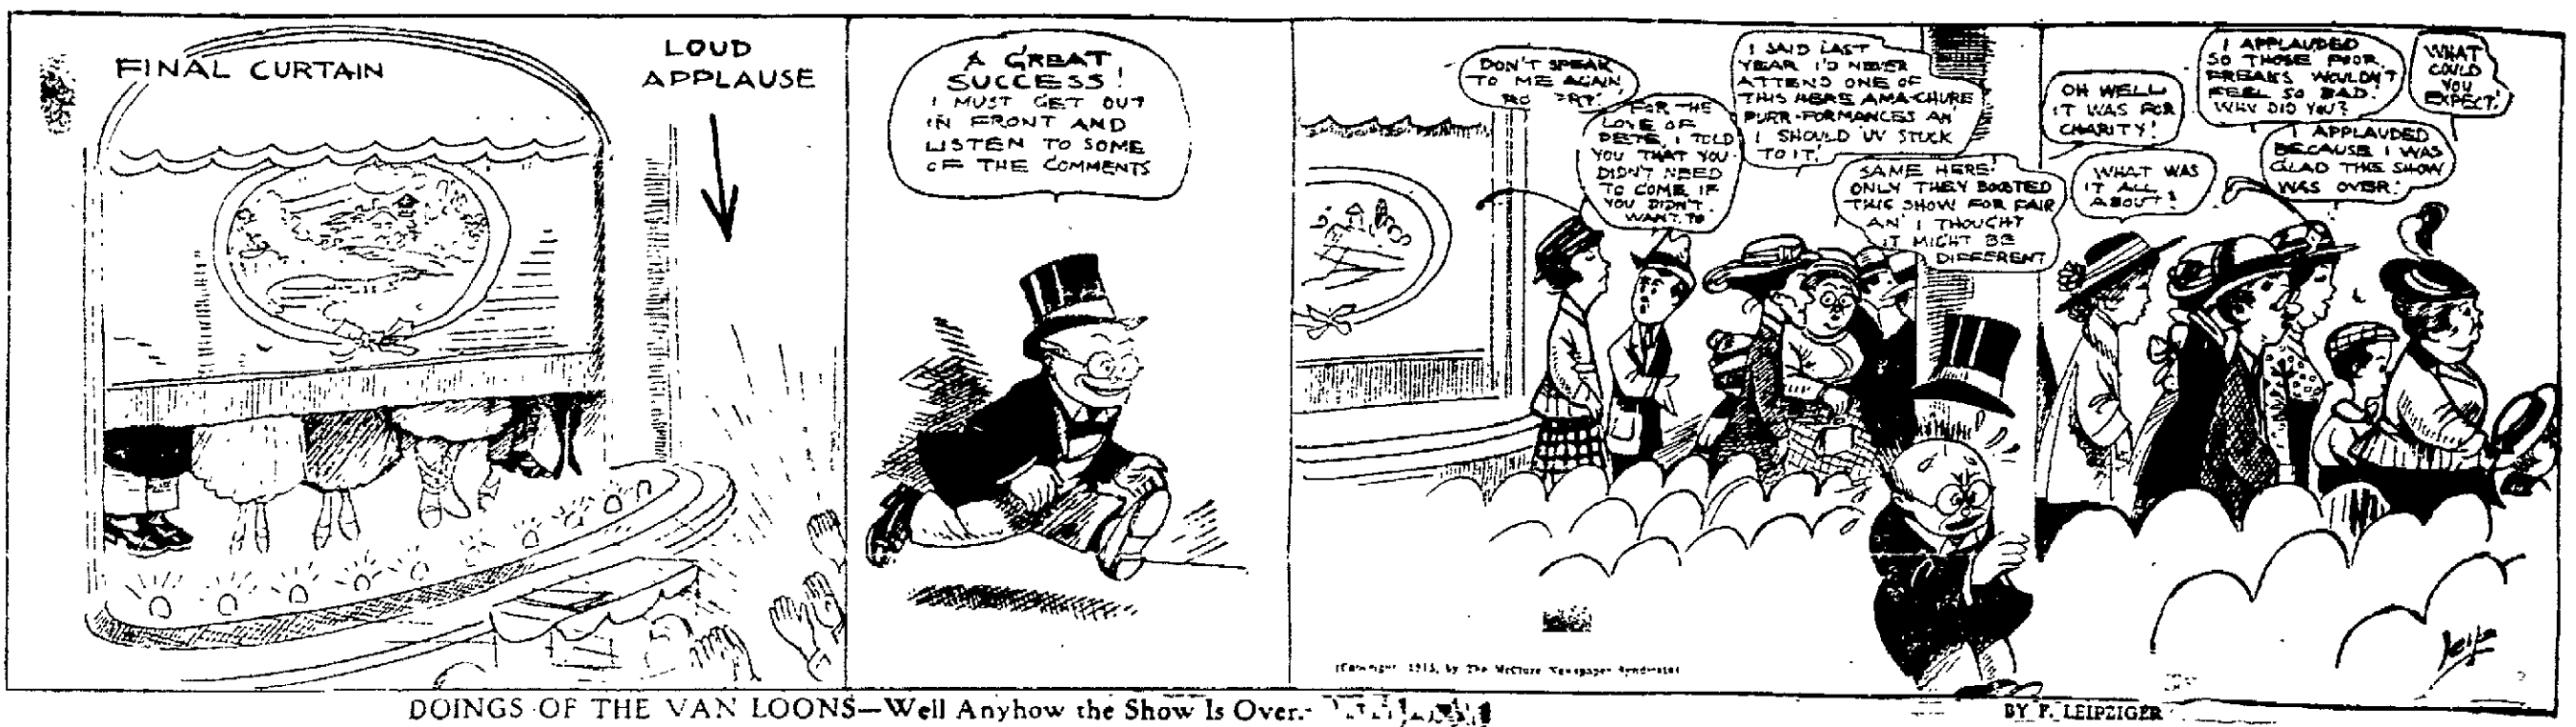

From every standpoint the achievement was a remarkable one and inaugurated a new record in submarine building.

It is said by the man who told the story that freight carrying submarines would be developed in a few months. The building capacity of the Bethlehem Steel Company, in conjunction with the Electric Boat Company, is one hundred submarines a year. This, it is said, will be doubled in the near future, to meet the demands of the European belligerents and of the United States.

The ten submarines assembled at Montreal left the Canadian waters together, carrying 100,000 gallons of oil and they reached their destinations within a few hours of each other.

Electrical Contract Awarded.

The contract for the electrical equipment for the manual training room of the new high school was awarded on Friday afternoon to Joseph A. McNelis and Company of this city. Other bidders for the contract were Carl Miller, of this city and the Cooper Electric Company of New York city. The work calls for the wiring of the room and connecting all the machines. There will be one switch board panel which will control all the machines in the room but each machine will have an enclosed switch by which it can be controlled. The work also calls for the installation of the motors for the various machines.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.
1331—A Pretty Dress for Mother's Girl—Girl's Dress With or Without Bolero and Collar, and With Sleeve in Either of Two Lengths. This style may be developed as a simple comfortable school frock, in gingham, percale, lawn or poplin, or, for more dressy wear, as a "best dress" in linen, batiste, voile, crepe or silk. It would be nice in soft batiste, with embroidery for the bolero, or in linen, with the free edges finished in embroidered scallops, or with bands of embroidery in the now so popular cross stitch in colors. The sleeve has a straight cuff in the wrist, length style, and in short length is finished with a pretty shaped cuff. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. It requires 3 1/2 yards of 44 inch material for an 8 year size, without bolero it will require 1/2 yard less.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

HURLEY.

Hurley Sept. 4.—The "Willing Workers" of the village church, under the leadership of Miss Vredenberg, gave a most successful entertainment on Wednesday evening, which not only gave amusement and enjoyment to those present but netted quite a pleasing sum for the benevolent needs of the society. The program comprised musical selections, recitations and a play. Miss Moulton, whose summer home is in Hurley, favored us with musical selections as well as recitations, in both of which the young lady showed the talents pleasing to the audience. Miss Bruyn sang in her usual pleasing manner two selections, as did also Miss Clara Liden. Hurley audiences are always glad to hear these young ladies. Miss Myrtle Slater recited a couple of clever pieces that took immensely with the audience. Miss Lucy Merritt is so well known for her excellent recitations that it is hardly necessary to mention that her recitation of this entertainment was as usual, excellent. The Metropolitan Quartet of Kingston, consisting of Messrs. Wunderly, Loughran, Abrams and Finch, with Miss Van Etten as accompanist, gave those present several selections of music which were indeed treats and which were received with keen enjoyment. The selections were varied enough to suit all tastes. The hearty thanks of the society and the audience are due to this quartet for so kindly coming to assist us. Their coming was certainly most highly appreciated. Miss Bruyn, Miss Moulton and Miss Liden, although not all year round members of our village, are still reckoned as home folk and they share thus in the thanks of all. Of course there was a play, "The Old Maids Association." This was of such a comical character that the audience was continuously amused. The members of the society were dressed surely plain enough to suit all notions of propriety. The meeting was decorous enough and was managed in a most woman-like manner. The discussions of the prospects of marriage and the eligibility of the to be possible husbands was very clever. The play winds up with a most mirthful scene, where a French professor persuades the women to test the merits of his new invented machine, which takes old maids and transforms them into bewitching femininity with any desired accomplishments. The machine itself was concealed from the audience but the professor manipulated the crank so well and vigorously that the audience became well acquainted with its powers. Its noise almost drowned the squeals of the women as they centred into its depths to undergo its manipulations to appear as desired. The final procession of the "ghosts" of those who had undergone treatment and whose presentment stood by, was not the least amusing feature. James Schmidt was the professor and his versatility herein displayed, added new laurels to his varied accomplishments. He did well. The following is a list of the members of the Old Maids Club with the names also of their counterfeited presentments: Miss Lucy Merritt as Jerusha Eliza Bangs with Miss Ethel Elmendorf as her presentment, a beautiful society girl; Miss Moulton as Rebecca Rutwell, Miss Bruyn as her presentment, an elegant elocutionist; Miss Ellen Smith as Serena Hasben, with Miss Liden as her presentment, as a beautiful singer; Miss Hazel Rousa as Minty Clovertop, with Mrs. Weaver as her presentment as an athletic girl; Miss Florence [unclear] as her presentment, a beautiful girl; with Miss Vredenberg as a bride for her presentment; Miss Bessie Cole as Hepsibah Odella Olds, with Miss Pelen as an accomplished musician as her presentment; Miss Mabel Hiller as Belinda Bliss, with Miss Arnet as her presentment as a splendid actress. Ice cream and cake gave opportunity for a social hour.

Potash & Perlmutter.

Labor Day brings a first class attraction at Kingston opera house in the New York success "Potash & Perlmutter," a comedy that played in this city last season and delighted hundreds of our theatre goers. is the kind you should be sure to use. Ordinary Portland Cements may be all right sometimes, but we sell ALPHA because it is right every time. We guarantee ALPHA to more than meet the United States Government standard for fineness, uniformity and strength.

Our book, "ALPHA Cement—How to use it," tells how to make permanent walks, floors, steps, posts and other home improvements. Call for it.

WHEN YOU TAKE A GLASS OF BEER

whether in the privacy of your own home, or in a more public place, there is nothing so necessary as seeing that the beer is of good quality. Poor beer is a menace to health and is never so satisfying. The man who drinks beer bearing our label knows that he is getting the best. Try it today.

KINGSTONIAN BOILERS

A Coal Saver

When you want to boil water quickly to poach an egg for breakfast, you don't put the water in a deep, narrow-bottomed kettle. Not a bit of it. You get a big, broad-bottomed pan and put a little water in it, and it boils almost while you are cracking the egg.

The Kingstonian Boiler acts just like that broad-bottomed pan does.

If you could pull out straight the flutes over the fire you would have just twice as big a flat surface. That's one reason why it heats quicker and with less coal than other boilers. Because it saves coal, we sell it. Because it saves coal, you should buy it. Let's talk it over together.

DEMOCRATS FIND TWO CANDIDATES

After Struggle Lasting Until Midnight Kearney and Sheppard Consented to Accept Nominations For Mayor and Alderman-at-Large.

Eleventh hour sacrifices were made just as the "leaders" of the party had resigned all hope and the Democratic caucus that was called for 8 o'clock on Friday evening finally got underway shortly before midnight when Ernest W. Kearney and Joseph A. Sheppard surrendered and the several committees that had been scouring the city since early in the evening reported that they had been unable to find any others who would be the "goats" and Mr. Kearney allowed his name to be placed in nomination for mayor and Mr. Sheppard

ERNEST W. KEARNEY.

for alderman-at-large. Mr. Kearney conducts a blacksmith shop on Wall street, while Mr. Sheppard, the other handpicked candidate has a confectionery store at No. 364 Broadway.
Never in the local history of Democratic politics have the "leaders" found it such a difficult job to find any one willing to offer himself as a sacrifice for the party's sake.

As it was expected that the committee on mayor would make its report on Friday evening the city court room at the city hall began to fill at an early hour with loyal Democrats anxious to hear who the "leaders" had decided to run for the office, but before the meeting was finally called to order by Chairman Frank P.
Quigley there were but a handful of loyal patriots left to hear the decision the others having returned home and gone to bed.

Quigley Halts Meeting.

Shortly after 8 o'clock Chairman Frank P. Quigley mounted the rostrum and just as he was about to call the meeting to order a face of a patriot was seen at the open door and a voice hoarsely whispered "Say, Quigley, wait a minute." Supervisor Quigley obligingly waited the minute and then as the owner of the voice seemed to hesitate about coming forward Mr. Quigley stepped down and walked to the door when the owner of the voice in stage whispers heard all over the room confided in Chairman Quigley's ear "Both of the candidates have refused to run."

"The devil you say," said Chairman Quigley, just like that, in a mild voice.

Then the Leaders Get Busy.

With a hasty step Mr. Quigley went to the recorder's court room which was occupied by the other "leaders" of the party who were grouped together with distress in their faces and earnestly talking to Mr. Sheppard who had just come in and when he had heard the glad tidings that he was to be nominated for alderman-at-large had positively refused to consider it.

When Chairman Quigley reached the group he learned that the voice that had whispered the dire tidings in his ear had been somewhat mistaken and that Mr. Kearney had been finally won over to run but that it was Mr. Sheppard who was refusing to have his name presented at the caucus.

"What will we do?" said Mr. Quigley in tragic tones "the crowd is all waiting in there expecting the report of the committee and they are becoming impatient."

"Why," said the other "leaders" in chorus "we will just have to get busy and round up some one else to run in Joe's place."

They did.

Scouts were hastened to the city court room and after glancing over the audience they began the work of selecting the prominent men present and asked them to step to the recorder's court room where they were tendered the nomination for alderman-at-large. One and all positively refused to be the "goat."

The only Democrat at the meeting who was not called into the secret consultation in the recorder's court room was Alderman William B. Martin. Earlier in the evening his friends had confided to him that the "leaders" had positively refused to allow his name to be presented for the office of alderman-at-large. It it needless to say that Alderman Martin's face began to droop, but he did not give up hope as one by one other Democrats were offered the office and one and all refused to accept. He had hoped up to the last that the "leaders" would be unable to secure a "goat."

Send For Stern.

While the discussion waxed hot a scout approached the leaders and whispered "Say I know of a good man, he ain't here tonight but I think he might run."

"Who do you mean?" asked Quigley, his face brightening.

"Why Sam Stern, who used to be president of the alms board."

"Gee," said the other "leaders"
"we forgot about him."

The Hunt For Stern Starts.

Ernie Kearney was asked if he was willing to go and hunt up Stern and present the office to him.

Mr. Kearney was willing if some of the "leaders" would go with him.

They did.

Immediately the party bearing olive branches jumped into a waiting automobile and hurried to Mr. Stern's home.

But He Was Not There.

But when they reached the residence they found that the house was dark.

"Can it be that he is in bed asleep?" queried some of the "leaders" as Mr. Kearney returned from the stoop after ringing the door bell in vain for an answer.

Suddenly a youngster on his way home was spied and he was anxiously queried as to the whereabouts of Mr. Stern and if he thought he was asleep.

"Now," replied the youngster,
"he's gone to the Orpheum."

The Search Resumed.

The searchers immediately jumped into the automobile and the driver was instructed to drive them to the Orpheum.

Here the ticket seller was unable to say whether Mr. Stern was in the audience or not but she was willing to assist them in finding out.

Several of the ushers were called down stairs and the information imparted to them that the party wanted Mr. Stern on important business and could not wait.

Immediately the ushers started through the audience on a hunt for Mr. Stern, who was finally located and with a resigned sigh left the theater just before the thrilling scene on the screen had come to a finish.

When he got to the bottom of the stairs he was met with outstretched hands by the committee who in imploring tones asked him if he would not please allow them to present his name.

He Had Refused the Mayoralty.

Mr. Stern earlier in the week had been approached and asked to allow his name to be presented for the office of mayor and had refused and he was somewhat thunderstruck
when they wanted him for alderman-at-large.

It did not take him a second to refuse the kind invitation and he did so in a positive tone.

The Committee Return.

After vainly urging him to make a sacrifice of himself for the sake of the party the committee, with disappointment written in their faces, returned post haste to the city hall,
where they reported failure.

By this time the hour had grown late and a number of the Democrats who had patiently waited for the meeting to be called to order had left for home.

Try Some One Else.

After a futile consultation the "leaders" got busy again and started all over the work of enticing the ones already asked to be the "goat"
but without success.

In the meantime several loyal patriot had cornered Mr. Sheppard and after talking continuously for two hours he finally weakened and consented to allow his name to be presented.

Alderman Martin Loses Hope.

Alderman Martin, when he saw the Stern committee return and re-

Physical Education as a Profession

THOUSANDS of young men and women who were graduated this summer are wondering what is the best vocation to follow.
To those in doubt,
Physical Education as a profession should be earnestly considered for it offers opportunities greater, by far, than many other fields of endeavor.

The demand for teachers of physical education is growing, the work pleasant and well-paid.

Good positions, in different parts of the country,
remain vacant for want
of competent instructors.

The work is interesting,
healthful and well worth while. Even though you are not compelled to earn your livelihood, the knowledge gained and the training will make you strong and healthy.

Prospective pupils should enroll at once as only a limited number of students can be received this Fall.

port failure, had his hopes boosted again but his dream was rudely shattered when he heard Chairman Quigley come out of the private conference and with a cheerful voice say, "Come on, boys, I guess the slate will go through now." Mr.
Sheppard was given no time to change his mind again for Supervisor Quigley lost no time in calling the meeting to order.

Kearney Named.

W. H. Grogan, as soon as the chairman called the meeting to order, placed the name of Kearney before the convention and, of course, there being no other willing to contest the "honor," he was unanimously selected as the party's standard bearer.

The chairman is now ready to receive nominations for alderman-at-large," announced Supervisor Quigley.

There was an ominous pause for the patriot who was to have presented the name of Mr. Sheppard had lost hope of Sheppard accepting the honor and had gone home with his speech still in his system. Probably he got rid of his speech before this morning by repeating it in his dreams.

Finally the pause had become so pronounced that Alderman Mitchell, who was getting restless, jumped to his feet and proposed the name of Mr. Sheppard.

Before Mr. Sheppard had a chance to again refuse the motion of the alderman had been unanimously carried and he had been selected as the victim.

The rest of the meeting was devoted to a general jollification over the fact that at last the head of the slate had been picked, followed by a quick adjournment to pre-arrange the two candidates from changing their minds.

ADVERTISEMENT WRITING.

ADVERTISEMENTS, Booklets, Circulars, etc., as I prepare them, are the best that raises your sales. They are well written, get the ideas that everything that is said, is seasoned with sugar-coated words of persuasion, and contain the salt that attracts attention and emphasizes success. Let us get the idea that everything that is said about your store is advertising, and remember that advertising which brings results is not a guess of imagination, but a science. Write to me or an intelligent clerk. Let me help you. George M. Zellmer, care of Kingston Freeman.

IMPROVEMENTS AT VAN WAGENEN STORE

Improvements which are being made to the L. B. Van Wageningen Company's store on Wall street will make it one of the finest stores of its kind along the river. Plans for the reconstruction of the building were drawn by Architect Gerard Betz of this city, and the work is being done by the Michaud Contracting Company in this city.

The roof in the rear is being raised another story so that the store in the rear will be three stories high, which will place it on a level with the front of the store. The new elevator which was recently installed, will run the three stories and will be used for the convenience of the shoppers.

In order to do away with the inconvenient blocking of the sidewalk when shipments are being made or received, the Van Wageningen Company has taken over the barn of the Kingston Hotel and will make a rear entrance through there and will do away with the packing and unpacking on the sidewalk, thus adding greatly to the comfort of people passing along the street.

In the rear of the store a concrete courtyard will be made where all the shipping will be done. The automobiles, trucks of the concern can load and unload there and will be in the way of no one and the work can be done more readily and efficiently.

Besides allowing the machines to enter through the rear a finely decorated covered entrance will be made to the rear of the store from Crown street. This will greatly aid the people and instead of having to walk around from Crown street to Wall street people coming in from the country who usually leave their horses on Crown street can walk right through the people's entrance and enter the back of the store, where suitable entrance will be made.

The offices which are now on the first floor will be moved to the top floor and the rug and carpet department will be entirely on the third floor, leaving the basement free for home furnishings alone.

All the work will tend to make the Van Wageningen store one of the best of its kind not only in this city but anywhere in the Hudson Valley. The work is right in line with the progressive work that is being done by the firm.

GOULD'S DOGS WIN PRIZES

This morning O. A. Todd, Richard Borden and Edward Burns, who have charge of the dog kennels of George J. Gould at Furlough Lodge on Broadway, left for New York after spending the night at The Weiner on Broadway. Mr. Gould exhibited a number of his pure bred pointer dogs at the dog show held by the Valley Kennel Club at Washington, D. C., where his dogs were awarded ten first prizes, two seconds, one reserve and one special prizes. The dogs, which are handsome animals, attracted considerable attention this morning as they stood in their shipping boxes in an auto truck in front of the Weiner.

The first cannon. The first cannon was carried by soldiers, and one man held it in both hands while the other fired it.

At the left is shown Quartermaster Biddle, of the Arabic, holding little Neville Gillender in his arms. Mrs. Gillender is standing by his side. The picture at the right shows a close up view of little Neville Gillender. Mrs. Gillender, in her anxiety to get into one of the boats when the Arabic was rapidly sinking, left her little baby on the ship. Quartermaster Biddle discovered the babe and passed it to its mother in the boat. The ship was then almost ready for her final plunge and Biddle was compelled to dive into the water. He was eventually rescued after swimming for two hours. Upon arriving at Queenstown he sought out Mrs. Gillender and the baby. The little tot was grown quite fond of his rescuer.

HARRY SINCLAIR.

THE FATHER OF TEN CENT BASEBALL.

Harry Sinclair, who joined the Federal League magnates in March, purchasing the Newark, N. J., franchise is known as the "Father of 10 cent Baseball." The idea of giving a first class ball game or the small price of admission now charged by the Federal League clubs originated with Sinclair.

Sinclair joined the ranks of the magnates because he likes baseball, not because he expected to make money out of it. Neither does he expect to lose, for Harry Sinclair is known as a man of good business judgment. He is probably the wealthiest of all

MENKE'S DAILY SPORTING LETTER

(By Frank G. Menke.)

New York, Sept. 4.—Connie Mack is now in a position to murmur, "I told you so" in the general direction of seven American League managers and the same number of National League managers.

Last winter Connie announced he was going to release Eddie Plank and Jack Coombs. Then Connie gathered the managers of Organized Baseball around him, and said:

"Both of these fellows have a few years of good baseball in their systems yet. I would advise you to take them."

The American League managers turned their spinal columns upon Connie and laughed—and laughed. "Say, if Connie cuts any player in the future, let him cut me out," agreed the American League managers. And they utterly dismissed Coombs and Plank from further consideration.

What Coombs Has Done.

Well, Charles Hercules Ebbels, grand master of the Dodgers, had a little hunch on Coombs. He played it by signing Coombs—and Coombs is the greatest "come back" twirler in the history of the game. The pitching of Coombs has been one of the mightiest factors in the uplift of the Dodgers and Ebbels has reaped a golden harvest through the acquisition of Coombs.

Because the Dodgers are in the pennant light—and that means big crowds and big gate receipts—just about the time that Mack released Plank, the owners of the Detroit Tigers were in the market for a southpaw.

"If we can get one reliable left hander I believe we can clinch the pennant," said Frank Navin.

"Take Plank," advised Mack. "He'll win two-thirds of his games."

But the Detroit owners turned a deaf ear and Plank went over to the Feds.

Plank's Amazing Work.

No man has pitched better baseball this year than this 40 year old pitcher. With a weak hitting club behind him he is pitching at a 700 clip. He has all his old speed, curves and control, and Eddie Plank's work is of the kind that probably will lead him to the pitching leadership of the Federal League in 1915.

Had Plank been with the heavy hitting Tigers and pitched the same brand of baseball that he's been pitching for the St. Louis Feds, the Tigers, instead of being in second place, would be so far in the lead in the American League fight that the chances would be about 3 to 1 against their ever being headed.

The Tiger management, which refused to take Plank as a gift, paid $15,000 the other day for Bill James, the Brownie hurler who never was—and never will be—in Plank's class as a twirler.

If the Feds fail to land the American League flag it will be almost solely because they lacked a first class left hander—a man like Plank. And Navin could have had him for nothing.

Mack's Actions Puzzling.

But the failure of Navin to grab Plank and the failure of other magnates to take Coombs is really excusable. The only conclusion one could draw from Mack's action in disposing of those two twirlers was that both were through. It seemed to most of the folk familiar with the inside of baseball that if they weren't through that Mack would have kept them, or if he didn't want them, to sell them. Mack's action in turning them aside certainly was a puzzling move.

His action in that case, however, is no more puzzling than that in the case of "Home Run" Frank Baker. Connie seemed to need the money. He can get $15,000 at the very least for Baker. At least four clubs in the American League and several in the National would pay him that sum. But Mack won't sell.

And then they say women are more peculiar than men.

Harvest Home Festival.

Cotkill, Sept. 4.—The Willing Workers of Cotkill are preparing for a harvest home festival to be held at the M. E. Church Monday evening, September 6. Supper will be served from 5:30 until all are served at 25 cents per plate. Caudron under 12 years, 15 cents. Delicious home made ice cream and other refreshments will be for sale. At 8 o'clock a free entertainment will be given.

5 AND 10 CENT STORE IN BUSH BUILDING

S. Baker & Son have leased the Bush building at No. 640 and 642 Broadway and as soon as alterations are completed will open it as a five and ten cent store in connection with the store on the Strand. This building was formerly occupied by the National Biscuit Company, who have removed to the old hay press factory on Cornell street, where they have opened temporary quarters until the new building being erected for them by Charles F. Gray, opposite the Standard Oil Company plant, is completed.

WASHINGTON GRAYS.

A Notice of Interest to Ulster County Veterans.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1915.

Dear Sir:—In the year 1861 the counties of Dutchess, Greene and Ulster furnished two full companies to the 47th New York State Volunteers. There are quite a number of these comrades living and will probably attend the national encampment in Washington during the last week in this month. By inserting the enclosed article in your valuable paper you will confer a great favor and greatly oblige.

Yours fraternally,
CHARLES W. WAAGE,
Secretary 47th N. Y. Vols.
Res.—1504 Myrtle Avenue,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Forty-seventh Regiment, New York State, Veterans' Association, "Washington Greys." Members of the regiment, attending the national encampment at Washington, will meet at the corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and 7th street, Southwest, on Tuesday evening, September 28, at 8 o'clock, and report to the secretary, Charles W. Waage. They are requested to wear the regimental badge for recognition.

By order of
WALTER SCOTT,
President.

Samsonville Sunday School Picnic.

The Samsonville M. E. Sunday school will hold their annual picnic on the church grounds, Wednesday, September 15. Music will be furnished both afternoon and evening. Everybody come and enjoy the usual good time to be had at this annual event. Watch for further particulars later.

Omitted Through Oversight.

Through an oversight, the name of Mrs. W. Scott Gillespie was omitted by the committee in making up the list of directors of the recently organized Associated Charities. The oversight has been corrected and her name has been added to the list of the board of directors of that body.

SHRINERS' OUTING AT KOHL'S PARK

The annual outing of the Kingston Shriners' Association will be held on Wednesday, September 15, rain or shine, when the Shriners will hold a clambake at Kohl's Park at Poughkeepsie.

The Shriners will meet at the Eagle Hotel at 9 o'clock in the morning and will make a short parade uptown and downtown before embarking on the boat which will carry them to Poughkeepsie. One of the features will be Muller's band, which will accompany the Shriners, and all the members of the band will wear the red fez as a part of their uniform. The members of the Shrine will be resplendent in red fezzes and will carry the accessories necessary for a successful outing.

Souvenirs and cigars will be distributed at different stations along the route and no Shriner will be allowed to feel lonesome. On account of the uncertainty regarding the weather on that day, the committee in charge regrets that it is impossible to invite the ladies to accompany the Shriners on this outing.

The officers of the association are: Ward B. Everett, president; Aaron Cohen, vice president; Matthew H. Herzog, secretary; William F. Brodick, treasurer; William H. Van Eiten, Addison E. Dederick and William G. Johnston, executive committee.

THE LABOR WORLD.

Recent Movements in Various Parts of the Country.

New York—Standard Oil Company grants eight hour day to 25,000 employees.

Bridgeport—Three policemen injured in strike riot. Two strikers arrested and jailed for one year.

Wilmington, Dela.—Atlas Powder Company to share profits with employees.

Watertown, N. Y.—Troops called out to quell riots at paper mill strike.

New York—Cotton seed oil workers and carpenters receive wage increase.

Meriden, Conn.—Employees of Westinghouse Company receive eight hour day.

New London, Conn.—$100,000 bonus given to ship-workers.

New York—President Gompers of American Federation of Labor has instructed international unions here ordering all locals affiliated with the United Hebrew Trades to withdraw from that organization because of its refusal to expel the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

PALENTOWN.

Palentown, Sept. 4.—Jesse O. Palen of this place and Mae Smith of Napanoch were united in marriage on August 27. They many friends wish them a bright and happy future.

Mrs. Freeman Roosa is spending a few days with relatives in Kingston.

Mrs. Virgil Barringer and daughter, Mrs. S. E. Krum, made a business trip to Kingston on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Palen are entertaining relatives from Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. Mary Palen of New Jersey has been spending her vacation with relatives here.

Willie Rose, wife and son, Albert, of Sundown spent Saturday night and Sunday with John Feltman and family.

Some of the farmers are still baying at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse O. Palen, Mrs. Harry Coons and children called at V. Barringer's Tuesday.

Noah Barringer of Samsonville was a recent caller at Joseph M. Lennon's.

Those who called on Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lennon on Sunday were her mother, brother and sister of Samsonville, Mrs. S. E. Krum of Krumville, Mrs. M. Palen of New Jersey, Everett Brannen, Otis Barringer and Alfred Coons.

Widows' Pension Fund.

Superintendent Thomas H. Edmonston, chairman of the child welfare board, has received a number of applications for widows' pensions, but the board will not be able to take care of the applications until the board of supervisors meets when an appropriation will have to be made to carry on the work of the child welfare board. Just how much of an appropriation will be needed can not be estimated at this time. This lack of funds, however, does not prevent any one making application for aid, and all applications will be acted upon as soon as an appropriation is made by the county for the work.

Anniversary at St. Mary's.

The nineteenth anniversary of the consecration of St. Mary's Church will be celebrated on Sunday with services of unusual solemnity. Solemn mass will be celebrated at 10:30 with a special musical program, the sermon will be by the Rev. Father Hulse, a professor in the Redemptorist Seminary at Esopus. Solemn vespers will be sung at 7:30 in the evening.
